The recipient may use the health information only for the following purpose:

To access medical information and services on behalf of a minor child via* MyJohnMuirHealth.

This authorization does NOT allow the proxy representative to access the patient's health information other than via MyJohnMuirHealth.

I may refuse to sign this authorization and my refusal will not affect the patient's ability to obtain treatment. This authorization shall remain valid until terminated electronically or in writing by MyJohnMuirHealth or the proxy representative, OR once the child reaches 18 years of age, whichever comes first. If written, the revocation must be signed on the patient's behalf and sent to the Health Information Management department. The revocation is effective upon receipt, but will have no impact on uses or disclosures made while the authorization was valid.

Restriction: California law prohibits the proxy representative from making further disclosure of the patient's health information unless the recipient obtains another authorization from you or unless the disclosure is required or permitted by law. This protection does not extend to recipients outside the state of California.
